

How can I participate in MTSS?

Families play a critical role in supporting what their children are learning in school. The more parents are involved in the student learning, the higher the student achievement. Ask questions to learn more about MTSS in your child's school:

- ⇒ Is my child successful? If not, why and what can we do differently?
- ⇒ If needed, how is additional help provided? By whom? How often? For how long?
- ⇒ What can I do to participate in the problem-solving about my child?
- ⇒ What can I do to help with the interventions for my child at home?
- ⇒ How will I know if interventions are working?

Call your School Counselor or School MTSS Lead for more information.

Parent's Guide to

Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS)

The Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) is a framework schools use to provide instruction and support that maximizes the success of all students. Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) is a framework for integrating levels (or tiers) of academic and behavior support to promote the success of all students. intervention support. The ultimate goal of a MTSS is to provide high-quality instruction and degree of support each student needs to be successful. MTSS is not a special program, class, or intervention, but rather a way of organizing instruction and intervention to help all students and promote early identification of students needing additional academic or behavioral support to be successful. MTSS is also be used to help identify students who may need special education.
